

Student Ambassador Application

Reaching out to the next generation of NEC

The office of admission seeks enthusiastic and knowledgeable individuals for their Student Ambassador Team. The right candidate will have a strong desire to present New England College to prospective students and their families. Applicants will need to possess strong leadership qualities and the ability to convey factual and anecdotal information about the College in an enthusiastic and articulate manner. Student Ambassadors are expected to represent NEC during campus events, through phone calling and email campaigns in personalized letters, as well as standard weekly tours of the campus. Student Ambassadors also play a major role in the Office of Admission by assisting counselors and office staff with daily administrative tasks.

Student Ambassador Ouestion/Answer Sheet

Please TYPE your answers to the following questions in paragraph format (1-2 paragraphs per answer) using 12-point font. Hand written answers will NOT be accepted. Please know that your answers and how they are presented will be strong indicators of the characteristics and skills we look for in a Student Ambassador. Take your time and carefully think out your responses to each question.

- 1. Why do you want to be an NEC Student Ambassador and what do you want to get out of the position?
- 2. Define the word Ambassador (in your own words) and describe the role one should play in the admission process.
- 3. As a prospective student, explain what it was like for you looking at colleges (fears and apprehensions, exciting and even humorous moments).
- 4. What advice would you give to a prospective student/family?
- 5. Your friends are sitting around a table talking about you, what words would they use to describe you?
- 6. How did you know NEC was right for you? What was the deciding factor(s)?
