

THE WRITING EMPORIUM
NEW ENGLAND COLLEGE
HENNIKER, NH

Site Supervisor: Bryan Partridge

Contact: bpartridge@nec.edu
428-2920

Hours Student Needed: Sunday-Thursday; 7-11:00 pm.

Purpose: The Writing Emporium peer tutors are students who have been selected and trained to offer educational services in specific academic disciplines to their peers. The peer tutors promote student academic success while encouraging them to become critical thinkers and independent learners.

Motivation/Interests/Skills Required:

- Must have completed Writing 1010 and Writing 1020
- Demonstrated excellence in their declared major field of study
- GPA of at least a 3.0
- Be aware of and support the mission, values, and outcomes of New England College.

Position Description:

- To provide individual and group tutoring services to undergraduate students.
- To provide general tutoring in such areas as time-management, study techniques, and goal setting processes.
- To work closely with student to help them with their academic work.

Supervision:

Peer tutors will be supervised by Bryan Partridge.

Benefits to Student:

- Gain increased familiarity with the student population
- Gain skills in teaching and tutoring.
- Gain listening skills
- Have the satisfaction of helping fellow students, and helping NEC reach its educational goals.