

Bethany Manley-Craig
Assistant Director of Student Involvement

Bethany Manley-Craig is a 2003 graduate of the University of Rhode Island where she studied Political Science and History. She received a Master of Science in College Student Personnel from the University of Rhode Island in 2006. Bethany gained experience in a variety of departments while completing her graduate work including, Undergraduate Admission, the Office of the President, Student Activities (both at URI & Salve Regina University), and the URI Catholic Center before she began working in Student Involvement at NEC in 2006.

As the Assistant Director of Student Involvement, Bethany provides oversight to the NEC Greek Community, as well as manages the Charter Coffeehouse and facilitates the Additional Funding Board. Bethany also works with the Office of Student Involvement on major projects and assists with campus-wide events such as New Student Orientation and Commencement.