

Brenda Quinn is a licensed psychotherapist who has worn both clinical and administrative hats over the course of her career. Brenda graduated from Colby College in 1987 with an under graduate degree in Child Psychology and Human Development. After working as a teen counselor and case manager for a few years she went back to school. In 1993 she graduated from Boston University with a Masters in Social Work. Brenda specializes in work with teens and young adults. She has worked as an independent clinician, administrator, professor, organizational consultant and clinical supervisor. Her new job as the Coordinator of Counseling Services calls on skills from all of these arenas and provides her with a great opportunity to work with the wonderful students here at NEC and a fabulous staff.
