

Megan Hotaling
Director of Student Involvement

Megan Hotaling is a 2005 graduate of the State University of New York College at Oneonta where she studied English and Communication Studies. She received a Master of Arts in Education from the University of Connecticut in 2007. Megan served as a graduate assistant in the Programs Office at UConn prior to working at NEC.

As the Director of Student Involvement, Megan provides leadership and direction to the students through a variety of avenues including clubs and organizations, the Student Entertainment Committee programming board, the Student Senate, orientation, and leadership development through conferences. She assists in the coordination of many campus wide programs, including Snow Day in October, Pancake Breakfast, and Pilgrim Pride Day. Megan was an instructor for the SL 1990: Student Leadership course for first year students during the fall 2009 semester. She also teaches a class for the orientation leaders in the spring semester.