CONTRACT DEFINITIONS, GUIDELINES AND INSTRUCTIONS

DEFINITIONS

DIRECTED STUDY (DS): An academic tutorial course that allows a student to do an in-depth study with a faculty member in an area of mutual interest. Students will meet weekly with the faculty member.

INDEPENDENT STUDY (IS): An academic course that allows a student to do an in-depth study in an area of interest. Students will work primarily on their own with minimum support and guidance from the faculty sponsor.

INTERNSHIP (INT): An academic course taking place in a work-like setting. It allows for the application of concepts learned in the classroom and is, in fact, an application and extension of classroom learning. An Internship is and should be an academic experience. An Internship may be awarded from 1 (one) to 16 (sixteen) credits. The amount of credit awarded is in relation to time spent on site, faculty/student contact hours, papers, etc.

Below are guidelines that should be used with establishing credits and hours on site for an internship.

Credits	Hours on site
16 credits	720 hours
12 credits	540 hours
8 credits	360 hours
4 credits	180 hours (1 credit x 45 hours)

GUIDELINES FOR STUDENT CONTRACTS
