

New England
College

Proof of Financial Ability for Executive Students

Proof of financial availability: $24,505

Acceptable types of financial documentation:

- A bank statement or letter from a checking or savings account dated within 12 months of your term start. Must be on official letterhead and in English.
- Liquid funds from a stock holding and/or certificates of deposit with liquid funds dated within 12 months of your term start.
- If someone is sponsoring your education, a copy of their bank statement/letter and a signed and dated affidavit of support.
- Approved and accepted loan sanction letters showing the date and principal amount of the loan.
 - The loan applicant needs to sign the letter as well as the loan company or entity.
 - Conditionally approved loan sanctions are not acceptable.
- A scholarship or sponsorship letter verifying the amount and available funds listed in USD, source, and dates of the student's award and disbursement details.
 - The letter should also include email address and contact information for the sponsorship agency.

nec.edu

graduateadmission@nec.edu

603.428.2252

98 Bridge Street | Henniker, NH 03242