If you're looking to study in an environment that blends safety, academic excellence, and vibrant lifestyle, look no further than New Hampshire. Ranked as 2025's Safest State in the Nation and second-best state to live in by U.S. News & World Report, New Hampshire stands out for its exceptional quality of life.

"At New England College, we're proud to call New Hampshire home—not only for its academic opportunities, but also for its unmatched safety," stated Dr. Wayne F. Lesperance, Jr., President of New England College. "Being named the Safest State in the Nation reinforces what we already know: that students, whether from across the country or around the world, can focus on learning, growing, and thriving here without worry. New Hampshire offers a secure, supportive environment where every parent and student can feel confident."

Safest State in the Nation

Safety is a top priority for students and their families. New Hampshire has been recognized as the safest state in the U.S., providing peace of mind and a secure atmosphere for academic pursuits.

Top-Ranked State for Quality of Life

New Hampshire's impressive ranking reflects its strengths in various areas, including economy, healthcare, education, and infrastructure. Its low crime rates contribute to a safe and welcoming environment for students.

A Haven for Outdoor Enthusiasts

Beyond academics, New Hampshire offers breathtaking natural beauty. From the majestic White Mountains to serene lakes and picturesque trails, students can enjoy hiking, skiing, and exploring the great outdoors year-round.

Thriving Economy and Career Opportunities

With a robust economy and a focus on innovation, New Hampshire provides ample internship and job opportunities for students and graduates. The state's emphasis on technology, healthcare, and education sectors ensures a dynamic job market.
