

New England
College

Proof of Financial Ability for On-Campus MS Students

nec.edu

internationaladmission@nec.edu

98 Bridge Street | Henniker, NH 03242

Proof of Financial Availability: $29,565

Acceptable types of financial documentation:

- A bank statement or letter from a bank related to a checking or savings account with the account holder's name clearly indicated. The document should be dated within 12 months of your term start. Must be on official letterhead and in English.
- Liquid funds from a stock holding and/or certificates of deposit with liquid funds dated within 12 months of your term start.
- If someone is sponsoring your education, a copy of their bank statement/letter and a signed and dated affidavit of support.
- Approved and accepted loan sanction letters showing the date and principal amount of the loan.
 - The loan applicant needs to sign the letter as well as the loan company or entity.
 - Conditionally approved loan sanctions are not acceptable.
- A scholarship or sponsorship letter verifying the amount and available funds listed in USD, source, and dates of the student's award and disbursement details.
 - The letter should also include email address and contact information for the sponsorship agency.