Scholarships Search Tips

Search locally

Check your town hall, local groups and organizations (for example, Lions Clubs, Rotary Clubs, local DAR Chapters)

Check your state

Search your state's websites for scholarship/grant organizations, or do a general search for these organizations. Searching for scholarship grant organization NH will bring up www.nhcf.org, which contains local scholarships for NH residents and some border states.

Search online for your interests

If you were to search for "Competitive Amateur Bowling Scholarship", you would find the Billy Welu Scholarship for Amateur Bowlers. Enter your interest including the words scholarship, grant, or fellowship in quotes.

Search online for your major

Doing a general search such as "undergraduate accounting grant scholarship MA" will bring up local businesses and organizations in Massachusetts that offer scholarships and grants to accounting majors.

Search Brand Name websites

Did you know that Nike, Tylenol, Visine, Buick offer scholarships? Try looking on brand name websites. You might find something!

Drop in on your old high school guidance counselor

Guidance counselors should have some information on local and well established organization. See if they can help you out.

Try www.fastweb.com
