New England College has a long history of welcoming transfer students. Many of NEC’s most successful alumni are transfer students. We offer flexible transfer policies that accept up to 90 credits toward your bachelor’s degree, and transfer students with strong academic records are eligible to join our Honors Program.

New England College is a small, private liberal arts institution focused on hands-on learning and combining real life experience with the classroom to achieve academic and career success. We offer more than 34 majors, internships, study abroad, special short study-away programs (at no extra cost!), and lots of innovative ways to learn.

Your Path to Success
Everyone at NEC is passionate about your success, from the day you apply, to graduation.

- NEC is ready when you are. With our rolling admission process, you will receive an admission decision and preliminary credit evaluation within two weeks of your file being complete.

- We make transferring affordable. Transfer students may be eligible for academic scholarships ranging from $10,000 to $25,000. These awards are renewable each year. 96% of NEC students are offered scholarships and/or need-based financial aid.

- We offer a wide array of services for transfer students including; academic advising, career and life planning, and mentoring. On campus housing is available for transfer students and there are a variety of off-campus options in the local area.

- Hands-on, experiential learning ensures that students are connecting their course work to the real world. NEC graduates enjoy a 93% job and graduate school placement rate within one year of graduation.

“I came to New England College because it felt like home. Coming from a school in a large city, I felt like just a number lost in a crowd of students. Here at NEC, everyone is welcoming and willing to help. Faculty and staff know me and go the extra mile to make sure I have what I need to succeed here - and after graduation. I have made life-long friendships and connections on campus and that has made all the difference.”

Community College Students Now Enjoy Automatic Acceptance with CC2NEC

If you are enrolled in a community college, you’ve already demonstrated that you want to give yourself the best chance for a successful and meaningful career. A bachelor’s degree from New England College will position you for that success.

Our CC2NEC (Community College to New England College) Program provides the certainty of knowing that, if you’ve been accepted at a community college and are in good standing, you are automatically accepted to New England College.

We understand the complexity and importance of the transfer process and work to make the transition as seamless as possible. All courses completed at an accredited post-secondary institution with a grade “C-“ or higher are considered transferable to New England College. Exceptions may be made for students who have completed an Associate Degree, allowing up to 16 credits of grades recorded as a “D” to be transferred.
